

FOOTBALL

European Championships

JUNE 11TH - JULY 11TH

With half the games as well as the final all being hosted at Wembley Stadium, football really is coming home! But will Waistcoat's Wizzkids make it a summer to remember?

TENNIS

Wimbledon

JUNE 28TH - JULY 11TH

All the usual suspects are back for another crack at Tennis' most prodigious award. Can Andy Murray mount one last challenge after his latest comeback? Either way, its a great excuse to break out the Fred Perry, Lacoste and of course, the Pimms.

BOXING

Joshua v. Fury

TO BE CONFIRMED

Potentially the biggest sporting spectacle this year, two British Heavyweights at the top tier of boxing go head to head. The mercurial talent of Tyson Fury vs. the man mountain, Anthony Joshua. Our money's on the Gypsy King.

THE GAMES

Tokyo 2021

JULY 23RD - AUGUST 8TH

The all-consuming, awe-inspiring sporting event will excite and captivate the world for the two weeks it graces our screens. But the big question is, can Team GB better their 2016 total?

YOUR SUMMER OF SPORT

KEY DATES FOR YOUR SUMMER SPORTING CALENDAR

FORMULA 1

British Grand Prix

JULY 18TH

The British Grand Prix at Silverstone, synonymous with action, excitement, adrenaline and Lewis Hamilton. You be forgiven for thinking the Brit is nailed on for his 8th BGP victory, but we can't help but think a revitalised Max Verstappen or the young Lando Norris driving in his teams home race will have something to say about that...

CYCLING

Tour de France

JUNE 26TH - JULY 18TH

Thrilling sprints, gruelling climbs, The Champs-Elysees and some pretty special lycra can mean one thing only: Tour de France time. Last years winner, Tadej Podacar is the man to beat once again and our best bet remains Geraint Thomas.

CRICKET

The Hundred

JULY 21ST - AUGUST 21ST

The latest iteration of our beloved game, the 100 ball version promises the biggest names in cricket, high scoring, a fast pace and unmissable action. Not to mention, the team names are pretty cool. Go Originals!

GOLF

The British Open

JULY 15TH - 18TH

Scarily narrow fairways, treacherously thick rough and devilishly fast greens. That's right, it's Open season. We all want to see Rory do it again but he faces fierce competition from Rahm, DeChambeau, Johnson and Koepka to name just a few. If the wind picks up, the idyllic Kent coast will give even the best sleepless nights; speaking of which, isn't it time you headed to the range?
